Girls Inc. Welcomes New Leadership New Board Members Elected for 2016

INDIANAPOLIS — Girls Inc. of Greater Indianapolis is proud to welcome four newly elected board members. Charlotte Hawthorne, Louonna Kachur, Kim Kean, and Andi M. Metzel began their three-year term in 2016 and will help Girls Inc. of Greater Indianapolis achieve its mission to inspire girls to be strong, smart, and bold.

The 2016 executive committee includes:

- Board Chair, Linda Hicks, Vertellus
- 1st Vice Chair, Lisa Orr, Walker Information
- 2nd Vice Chair, Courtney Brown, Lumina Foundation
- Treasurer, Mandy Parris, JP Morgan Chase
- Governance Chair, Ellen Humphrey, Appirio
- Secretary, Lori Ball
- Development Chair, Lisa Sorenson, IU Health

Newly elected board members are:

- Charlotte Hawthorne, consultant in global leadership and development at Eli Lilly and Company;
- Louonna Kachur, senior director of team success for One Click;
- Kim Kean, vice president of human resources for Interactive Intelligence; and
- Andi M. Metzel, partner at Benesch Friedlander Coplan & Aronoff, LLP.

Board members meet bi-monthly and all board members serve on at least one committee.

“We are delighted to have this group of talented leaders join us in inspiring all girls to be strong, smart, and bold,” said Pat Wachtel, President & CEO.
